Subject: For Andrew on April 9, 2010

Happy 4th Birthday, Andrew!

Another birthday, and you and your father are still separated from each other. This is sad. It is not right. We pray that you will soon be reunited with your father back in the USA.

We are happy, though, that you and he saw each other in Queretaro last month on Friday, March 7, and Saturday, March 8. We have attached to this email two of the many pictures that your Grandpa Richardson took of the two of you together.

Love and prayers,
Grandpa Richardson and Grandma Richardson
