

June 17, 2012-Fathers' Day

Dear Andrew,

This is the fifth Father's Day that we have had to send you an email because you are not together with your father. You should be in his custody because that is what a Milwaukee County Court ruled in 2007 during your parents' divorce proceedings. Your mother's continued defiance of that court ruling and her continued misuse of the Mexican legal system have kept you and your father apart all these years.

We send these emails to you because you need to know why your father has been and continues to be absent from your daily life. We believe that one day you will be able read all of our emails to you. We realize that reading them will be a very sad and troubling experience for you. We wish we could spare you that pain, but you need to know the truth so you can heal and move on with your life.

On this Father's Day, and every day, we hope you know how special you are and how much you are loved by your father, who misses you very much.

Love and prayers,

Grandpa and Grandma Richardson
