Subject: For Andrew on October 9, 2007

Hi Andrew,

Today you are one and a half years old! We hope you are healthy and happy.

We are sorry that your mother has taken you away from your father. We know he loves you very much and wants to share this important day with you. We hope that your mother will soon bring you back to Wisconsin so that you and your father can be together again.

Love and prayers,

Grandpa and Grandma Richardson
