

Date: Wed, 08 Oct 2008 02:25:12 PM EDT

Subject: For Andrew on October 9, 2008

Dear Andrew,

Today you are two and a half years old. We remember the day you were born, April 9, 2006. We were happy that your father and mother were blessed with a healthy baby. We looked forward to getting to know our new grandchild.

Since that day your parents were divorced. Your mother illegally fled to Mexico with you. On September 15 of this year a judge in the Mexican city (Queretaro) where you were born ordered your mother to return you to your father. Your mother has not obeyed the judge's order and is still illegally keeping you in Mexico.

We believe that you and your father will be reunited soon. He loves you very much. He is doing the right thing. He is doing what he must do. And he is doing his best for you and everyone involved.

Love and prayers,

Grandpa and Grandma Richardson