

Merry Christmas, Andrew!

It was such a joy to celebrate your first Christmas with you and your parents in December 2006 here in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Five years have passed. Your parents are divorced. Your mother fled with you from your home in Wisconsin and took you to Mexico to live. Now you are celebrating Christmas 2011 in Mexico without your father. This makes us feel sad because we love both you and your father very much.

We hope and pray that in 2012 we will see you and your father together again!

Grandpa and Grandma Richardson

P.S. We have attached a picture of us that was taken in July of this year in front of the Wisconsin Slovak Historical Society's Museum and Heritage Center. Your grandpa teaches the Slovak language there. Your grandma helps the curator with the exhibits and displays in the museum and heritage center.
